First National Center Senior Property Manager accepts community role

Emily D. Dobson of Milbank Real Estate takes leadership position with Rebuilding Together

OKLAHOMA CITY – First National Center Senior Property Manager Emily D. Dobson was recently appointed to the program committee of Rebuilding Together OKC. Dobson will work with other local professionals to preserve affordable housing by bringing volunteers and communities together to rehabilitate the homes of low-income homeowners.

Dobson has volunteered with Rebuilding Together for six years, and has worked at First National Center for two, beginning her tenure as the building's property manager. She oversees the property's multi-million dollar renovation, as well as tenant relations and operations.

About Rebuilding Together

Rebuilding Together OKC is a nonprofit organization that improves the living conditions of low-income homeowners 55 and older in the OKC metro area by making FREE home repairs and modifications to their homes. Rebuilding Together utilizes the labor of thousands of volunteers, in-kind materials and donations to make these repairs throughout the year and on our annual Work Day. The focus is on keeping our seniors in their homes and allowing them to age in place – independent, safe, warm, and dry.
